

Agnes the Witch

The Karma Factory Music & Lyrics © 1997,2023, Scott Lippincott, Nursery Rhymes Music (BMI)

Agnes the witch lives all alone
Without a friend to see her through the day
She gathers potions from afar
And prepared them in her special way

Remembers where there was another
When she used to his wife
The magic spell was disappointing
And it left him for scarred for life

The air is smoke, the light is dim
And she is crying in the den
She curses all that she has learned
And hopes her nightmare will soon end

Far away under the castle
A lonley man sits in his pain
Because she wanted to seem beautiful
She will never see him again

Suddenly she's all alone
Suddenly she's all alone
Suddenly she's all alone
Suddenly she's all alone

And she never came to love
She just frightened him away
