

All Mine

The Karma Factory Music & Lyrics © 2023, Ken David, Flamesong Music (BMI)

I wrecked your life Like you wrecked mine
Crying people tears
Just never had the time

To wait so long It's lost and gone
all mine

Have a simple life
Is what she once said
Flower girl all swirl
Is the girl I left in bed

I waited too long
And now she's gone
all mine

Fleeting glimpses of a watercolor smile
Two pastel lovers sketched in artistic style
All mine are shattered into splinters and glass Hide the cuts and scars to cover a frenzied past
all mine

A bitter taste lingers like metal on the tongue Time so swift it's over before it's begun

I took to long right and wrong
all mine

Fleeting glimpses of a watercolor smile
Two pastel lovers sketched in artistic style
All mine are shattered into splinters and glass
Hide the cuts and scars to cover a frenzied past
all mine
