

Fake it

The Karma Factory Music & Lyrics © 1997, 2023 Scott Lippincott, Nursery Rhymes Music (BMI)

Take a shit, take a drag then you go back home
Can't erase from your face when I'm all alone

And all my senses are deceiving
And all my fences are breaking down

Got your name, got your name and that was all
Tried to quit that was it and you dropped that ball

And all my senses are deceiving
And all my fences are breaking down

Are you naked, when you fake it
are you naked yeah
Are you naked when you fake it
Does it feel so good you have to be all alone

In your mind, can you find a good reason at all
Do you think when you drink that I care at all

And all my senses are deceiving
And all my fences are breaking down

Are you naked, when you fake it
Are you naked yeah
Are you naked when you fake it
